

18303 Word Order of Adverbs When More than One Adverb in the Sentence

Please add this note to the document 18303 Word Order, A Reference Material from Usha Jain, Advanced Hindi Grammar 2007 Regents of the University of California, p. 63

“If there is more than one adverb in a sentence, the standard word order is adverbs of time, then adverbs of place, then adverbs of manner. Adverbs of degree generally precede the adjective or adverb they modify. Again, this word order is flexible and can be easily changed to give special emphasis.”
