

28100 Assignments, Week 28

Repeat and Memorize

27200 Anjali Finds a Friend: CD7 Track 3

From 'This is my husband, Steve' through 'We'll be so happy if you come'.302

Listen and Read

27200 Anjali Finds a Friend: CD7 Track 3

Listen and Repeat

27200 Anjali Finds a Friend: CD7 Track 3

Compare सकना and चुकना

Compare the sentence structure for सकना (p 165) with the sentence structure for चुकना (p 296)

(Note: the meaning of the verb चुकना is 'to be finished'; it is an intransitive verb).

Study 28400 Verb Stem + सकना 'can, to be able'; Verb Stem + चुकना 'already, to be finished': A Reference Material

Vocabulary Study - Verbs

Review the Verbs in 28301 Cumulative Vocabulary through Act III, CD7. Aim for being able to recognize the meaning of 60% or more Hindi verbs (i.e. control at 'recognition' level)

Write and Bring to Class

a composition about something you want to know how to say, utilizing the कर construction at least once.

(see Jain, p 247) Enough copies for everyone, etc.

Read

Jain, p 254, Note 4 (regarding the indirect verb construction with the verb लगना used to express an amount required to do something.)

Jain, Chapter 39, p 296 Verb Stem + चुकना Construction

Jain, Chapter 25, p. 185 The Present Perfect Tense

Jain, Chapter 26, pp. 190-191 The Past Perfect Tense We have talked about both of these tenses in class.

Listen

Jain CD5 Track 2 (Chapter 22, Use of the Verb सकना 'to be able to')

Jain CD9 Track 1 (Chapter 39, Verb Stem + चुकना construction)

Jain CD7 Track 4, Drills 8 and 9 (Chapter 34, Expressions with लगना)

Print and Bring to Class

Please bring the Cumulative Vocabulary to class.

28200 Grandma's House and New Vocabulary, CD8 Track 1

28300 Cumulative Vocabulary through Act III, CD7.

28301 New Vocabulary Calendar Terms and Amounts

28400 Verb Stem plus सकना and चुकना